Company Highlights

- Pricing: This contact was competitively bid by the State of Pennsylvania and was award to UniqueSource. The University of Pittsburgh can take advantage of the very competitive pricing available through “piggybacking” on the state contract.
- Community and Sustainability: UniqueSource is a Pennsylvania based company, and its shredding services are offered through the Westmoreland County Blind Association. The employees that perform these services are people with disabilities. Paper shredding services (from pick-up to processing) are secure and certified, and the end product is 100% recycled.
